The Third Annual Wilton Women's Week!

South Florida shines as one of the biggest LGBTQ+ hubs in the country, with festivals that draw crowds year after year. Wilton Manors specifically has been named “the second gayest city in America.”

From April 24 through May 2, 2027, join us for a dynamic week filled with social gatherings, arts and entertainment, sports and recreation, wellness and healing events, and so much more. All of this will unfold in the heart of South Florida—one of the most beautiful and inviting destinations in the country.

Building on the energy of last year's success and inspired by thriving women's events in places like Rehoboth Beach and Provincetown, we anticipate welcoming several thousand women—both locals and visitors—to this celebration.

Wilton Women's Week is more than an event—it's a fundraiser that sustains the vital programs of The Pride Center and our Women With Pride initiative. In addition, proceeds will support LBT woman-owned and woman-led organizations, businesses, and programs, extending the impact well beyond this week of festivities.

ABOUT YOUR HOST: The Pride Center

The Pride Center at Equality Park is South Florida's vibrant hub of diversity and connection. Each month, our campus welcomes countless social, support, and educational groups—serving seniors, people living with HIV/AIDS, the transgender community, and so many more. Together, these programs touch the lives of more than 250,000 residents and visitors every year.

We're also proud to host the nation's largest weekly gathering of LGBTQ+ seniors—an inspiring testament to the power of community across generations.

Set on a beautiful 5.5-acre campus with 35,000 square feet of office and rental space, Equality Park brings together ten LGBTQ+ organizations in one collaborative space. With a shared commitment to love, acceptance, and equality, we invite everyone to join us in shaping a brighter, more inclusive future.
